Read Across America

By: Tahnna Nokes APS Junior

ARNOLD- On Friday March, 3, 2023 the Kindergarten and 1st classes had the opportunity to participate in creating a catapult in regards to Read Across America.

Many NHS members including myself went down to the kindergarten classroom and gathered both kindergarten and first grade to build some catapults. In the beginning, each group was given a bag with 8 popsicle sticks, 6 rubber bands, and some markers to decorate with. Once split up into groups they were also given instructions on how to build the catapults and they got right to work. Furthermore, when they completed building the catapults they had the opportunity to take their catapults outside and test them. To test them they were offered marshmallows and cotton balls. After a couple of rounds the students and their groups had the chance to go out and play outside and have fun. After the completion of the day they were able to take their catapults home and use them as they wanted. In addition, grades 2-5 were in the gym listening to a presenter for their participation in the read across america funstivites. The presenter who was speaking was from "Out of this World" which the students had a fun time listening to. Once completed with the presentation they also were able to take part in an activity.

Saint Patrick's Day

By: Harlea Shaw APS
Junior

Everyone knows about Saint Patrick's Day, but do you know why we celebrate Saint Patrick's Day? The reason is in the name, we celebrate it on the day of Saint Patrick's death, which was on March 17th A.D. 465. Saint Patrick was born and raised in Great Britain but enslaved at 16 and brought to Ireland. After six years, he escaped and was reunited with his family. Even with everything he was put through, he still eventually returned to Ireland and introduced Christianity to the country. When he died, the Irish celebrated with church in the morning, and drinking, dancing, and feasting on the traditional meal of Irish bacon and cabbage in the evening. Today they celebrate with a world famous parade that draws more than 100 thousand people to Dublin, Ireland, each year, and the celebration lasts for a week. Another tradition in Ireland is called kissing the Blarney Stone. Located about eight kilometers outside of Cork, Ireland, there's a limestone called the Blarney Stone 85 feet above the ground on the east wall of the castle battlements. It is said that you will receive the gift of eloquence and persuasiveness if you can kiss the Blarney Stone. This led to the saying "Kiss me, I'm Irish" in America. Americans have also developed their own traditions for Saint Patrick's Day. Americans celebrate Saint Patrick's Day by eating corned beef and cabbage and wearing green. The reason why we wear green is based on Irish folklore that states that leprechauns are ornery creatures and they are not picky. The color green is said to be invisible to leprechauns, and they will pinch you if they can see you. So don't forget to wear your green, and Happy Saint Patrick's Day!

Renaissance Home Connect

Watch Student's

Dear Parents,

Your student uses Accelerated Reader, also known as Renaissance Place, at school. This program has a new feature called Renaissance Home connect, which the student and the parent can access outside of class with an Internet connection. Renaissance Home Connect is fun and easy to use. It allows the teacher, the parent, and the student to share information about your student's progress in Accelerated Reader.

Be watching for a letter to come home on the first day of school with instructions of how to login and how to use the program. You can also set up automatic emails when your student takes tests over books or takes the STAR test.

Please contact me if you have any questions. Nicole Badgley.

From the Superintendent's Desk

As we head into our last two months of the school, it certainly feels like the year has flown by, and I expect the remainder of the year will go just as fast. With spring events coming I encourage you get out and catch a track meet, golf meet, spring concert, and other events open to the public along the way. Please look for our weekly posts on activities as there may be additions and changes along the way. It will certainly be busy!

With this being the last newsletter for the school year, I wanted to take the time and publicly thank a couple of invaluable people. First, I'd like to wish Mr. McIntosh the best of luck as he transitions to Principal at Anselmo-Merna next year. I greatly appreciate all of your efforts these last three years to make APS a better place for everyone. I know you will do great things to make your next district better. I would also like to wish Ruth Tullis a happy and well-deserved retirement. I will say, our buildings and grounds are the cleanest you'll find. She has always taken great pride in her work and realized the little things matter. Between keeping the school looking great, driving bus, and helping in the kitchen, she leaves big shoes to fill. I can't thank the both of you enough for everything you have done for Arnold!!

ent questionnaire, and additional documents must be completed and returned to the District no later than May 1st of the spring before fall enrollment to allow timely assessment to be completed.

If you have any questions, please contact the office at 848-2226 ext. 3.

From the Principal's Desk

Hello Arnold Patrons,
The school year is now into the last stretch before summer. There are many things going on to conclude the year, and I advise you to look at the online calendar, but also check Schoology for updates.

ASSESSMENTS

Throughout the month of April, students will be taking spring assessments. I have talked with students about their responsibilities to set and continue good routines: attend school and classes regularly, get a good night sleep, and get the day started on time with a good breakfast. These assessments give teachers another insight into the students' performance.. Assessments also help with instructional alignment with State Standards and lesson planning. These assessments will be spread out during the month of April.

CURRICULUM

In relation to instructional materials, APS is currently in the 2nd year of teaching Envision (Savvas) Math components. Teachers and many students have experienced the benefit of the materials. I know these new materials are a change for many. However, please keep an open mindset because they do align with the State Standards and students are seeing benefits. APS Elementary is currently looking at English Language Arts instructional materials. This is a process the staff has been working hard at. Teachers are looking through materials that align to standards and the needs of our students.

PRESCHOOL AND KINDERGARTEN ROUND-UP

A few things that will be different this year is, preschool and kindergarten round up will be on the same day, Friday April 21st. There will be no school for current Kindergarten students on this day. There will be more information on the Preschool and Kindergarten Round Up letter sent to families with age-appropriate children. If you don't receive a letter, and your child is eligible, please contact the office. Early childhood education has proven to have many benefits on starting the education foundation.

ELEMENTARY FIELD DAY/LAST DAY

Another event that will look different this year is the Elementary Field Day. Field day will be held May 15th and this will be the last day of school for K-6 Grade Students. Last year this was such an enjoyable day for students, family members, and the community to come and watch the Elementary students have fun and the NHS and older students run this special event. There will be lunch provided and an opportunity for parents to settle up any student bills and collect belongings.

COATS

Students need to be reminded that they need to bring warm clothes to go outside for recess. Nebraska weather is unpredictable so a heavy coat or rain jacket is best to send.

KINDERGARTEN ROUND-UP

Parents will meet while students get to participate in activities that include:

- Calendar
- Lunch @ 11:00 with parents
- Music/PE
- Math Activities
- Reading Activities
- Tour of Building
- Craft

Age Requirements:

Minimum Age: Nebraska State Law LB1006 revised the age requirements for students entering kindergarten. The bill states: Children must reach the age of 5 years on or before July 31.

Any exceptions may be considered on a case by case basis. Specific guidelines and assessment results will apply.

ARNOLD- On March 2, 2023 the Junior Honor Society held break a rule day. Break a rule day is a fundraiser that the school does every so often to help raise money for a variety of different things. This break a rule day was helping the Dolly Parton Imagination Library for Custer County. The 2023 D-2 State OID Champions for the play Marvelous Wonderettes include: Ella Cool as Missy, Ivy Tullis as Suzy, Danah Baldwin as Cindy Lou, Anna Tullis as Nancy and Riata Remund as Betty Jean.

State Speech Winners

On February 26th, the speech team traveled to Wallace for districts, which was the last meet of the season for some of them, but for many of them, they had the opportunity to compete one more time in Kearney for state. Eli Rogers, Taylor Hanna-Miles, Pedro Flores, and Johnathon Lamphear placed third in districts in OID.

The following students placed second at districts: Danah Baldwin in Serious prose, Ella Cool in Humorous, Ræalta Leach in Persuasive, Gracie Neth in extemp and informative, and Logan Recoy and Rio Remund in duet. The students that placed first at districts were Riata Remund in persuasive, Samantha Wonch in Entertainment and Danah Baldwin, Ella Cool, Riata Remund, Anna Tullis, and Ivy Tullis in OID.

On March 17 in Kearney, state was held and Gracie Neth got fourth place in extemporaneous, and Danah Baldwin, Ella Cool, Riata Remund, Anna Tullis, and Ivy

Tullis were the state champions in OID. I interviewed these students and this was their responses:

Gracie Neth has been competing in speech for three years now. Her favorite part about speech this year was hanging out with friends and doing line dances; her least favorite part was waking up really early for meets. She felt really nervous going into state because she didn't have much time to find her rooms and said her voice was croaky. She now says that she is really excited that she did well and really relieved that it's over.

Danah Baldwin's favorite part of this season was when they beat Potterdix at districts, and watching her team succeed throughout the season; her least favorite part of speech was the first speech meet. Going into state Danah was confident but really nervous, and now, after state, she feels accomplished and proud that all the hard work their OID put in amounted to something really good.

Ella Cool's favorite part was when everyone was cheering after they were announced first place at state; her least favorite part was the two weeks leading up to the first meet. Before state she was really excited but also really nervous and had low expectations. Now, after state, she's really excited and really proud of her team.

Riata Remund's favorite part of the season was winning; her least favorite part was early mornings. Going into state she wasn't worried about it, now she's happy about it. Anna Tullis' favorite part was when they were standing in line waiting at awards.

And it got down to them and Potterdix; her least favorite part was that before Broken Bow there were a lot of long practices that weren't fun. Before state she felt really nervous and thought they were going to lose, now she's really happy, relieved and surprised. Ivy Tullis' favorite part was practing with the team and not just doing her own speech but also watching everyone else’s and watching their speeches improve; her least favorite part was waiting for awards. Going into state she felt really confident, and excited that they made it to state and got to experience it. After state, she’s kinda sad that it’s all over because of the amount of time that they spent working on the speech.

The head coach, Ms. Amanda Badgley and her volunteer coaches, Lana Cool and Holly Remund, are all very proud of the students that went out for speech this year and excited for the season to come.
